GUIDE TO COMPLETING THIS FORM

**Please read carefully**

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO

- Use this form if you have entrusted property (eg, money or securities) to a dealer or a dealer has received property on your behalf in the course of the dealer's business in dealing in securities, the dealer has since become insolvent, and has not accounted to you for the property.
- You should lodge your claim as soon as possible after you become aware of the dealer's insolvency.
- There is a statutory time limit for lodging claims on SEGC. A claim should be lodged within 6 months after you become aware of the dealer's insolvency. The Board of the Securities Exchanges Guarantee Corporation Ltd (SEGC) (who will consider your claim) has a discretion to waive the time bar in appropriate cases, but the onus is on you to establish that it is appropriate for the Board to exercise its discretion.
- Keep a copy of the completed claim form and any other papers attached to the form so that you have your own record.

STEPS FOR COMPLETION AND LODGEMENT OF CLAIM FORM

STEP 1

• When completing the claim form, please print clearly. Follow the "go to" instructions on the form and attach further information on separate pages if there is not enough space on the form.

The person completing the form must sign the Statutory Declaration in the presence of a prescribed person (see attached list), who will also sign the form as a witness. Before you sign the Declaration read it carefully.

The onus is on you to prove your claim so ensure you include all relevant information or documentation which goes towards proving your claim, for example, any receipt or other documentation showing that the property was delivered to the dealer.

- If your claim is outside the time limit, you also need to provide information which is relevant to the SEGC Board's consideration of whether it is appropriate to waive the time restriction. The factors which the Board may take into account include:
  - the extent of the delay in lodging a claim;
  - any reason or excuse for the delay;
  - the degree of your commercial experience or inexperience;

- whether any particular hardship will be caused to you;
- any other matter which you consider relevant for the Board's consideration.

The Board may also consider general policy issues, including the efficient administration of the National Guarantee Fund and any prejudice which may be suffered by SEGC by reason of the delay in lodging the claim.

Certain persons are excluded by the Corporations Regulations 2001 from lodging a claim (in relation to property entrusted to a dealer). These include such persons as the dealer (and where the dealer is a company the officers of the company), a spouse or relative of the dealer (or company officer), companies which those persons control, and trustees of trusts under which those persons may benefit.

STEP 2

Post or deliver your claim form and any attachments to SEGC at the address on the coversheet.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN AFTER YOU SEND YOUR CLAIM TO SECURITIES EXCHANGES GUARANTEE CORPORATION LTD

- You will get a letter from SEGC advising that your claim has been received.
- SEGC management will check that the claim is valid and may decide to seek further information from you, your dealer or other sources, if necessary. You must be prepared to assist SEGC with this, if required.

In some cases it may be that the property is available for return to you. Where this happens, you will be advised when to expect receipt of the property and further consideration of the claim may not be necessary.

- SEGC management will present the claim to the SEGC Directors, who after reviewing the claim, will determine whether or not to allow the claim.
- SEGC will advise you of the Board's decision.

If your claim is allowed, SEGC will provide you an amount equal to the amount of money that was entrusted, and/or if property other than money is claimed, the property will be supplied, or if this is not practicable, property of a like kind, or if this is also not practicable, a cash settlement will be made.
